NURSES KILLED BY EXPLODING SHELL ON SHIP

Strong Fatality In American Hospital Unit On Way to France

OFFICER STANDING NEAR ESCAPED WITHOUT INJURY

Gun Crew at Target Practice When Shell Fragments Struck Women

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, May 21.—In an accident during practice firing at sea yesterday of a gun aboard an armed American merchantman bound for Europe, two American Red Cross nurses have been killed and a third wounded, marking virtually the first American casualties of the war.

The two killed were Mrs. Edith Ayers and Miss Helen Burnett Wood of Chicago, and the wounded is said to be Miss Matzen of Chicago, members of the Base Hospital No. 1, bound for duty in France.

The ship which sailed, returned today, her flag at half mast, with the two bodies and the wounded nurse, who was taken in a tug to the New York navy yard hospital.

Official announcement of the cause of the accident has been withheld by both army and navy authorities. One version obtained when the steamship reached Quarantine was that the shell from the gun had exploded about 175 feet distant as it was striking the water and that pieces of the shell ricocheted back, and struck the nurses. Another was that the accident was caused by a breach explosion of the defective shell as the gun was fired. Another was that the shell exploded as it was being loaded.

As soon as the ship had reached Quarantine, she came up the bay and anchored. It was announced that no one would be allowed aboard the vessel and her owners said that they knew nothing whatever of the cause or circumstances of the accident. It was expected that a navy court of inquiry would be held. Meantime, it was said, the ship would probably remain in port. Information as to the seriousness of Miss Matzen's injuries was refused at the navy yard hospital although it was understood that she was expected to recover.

There was said to be about 260 members of the No. 1 base hospital aboard the ship, of whom 60 were women nurses.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, May 21.—Mrs. Edith Ayers and Miss Helen Burnett Wood, the two nurses killed yesterday on board a steamer bound for France, were nurses at the Cook County Hospital here before joining hospital unit No. 12.

Mrs. Ayers was 36 years old. Her home was in Attica, near Tiffin, O. She was graduated from the Illinois Training school for nurses in 1913. Miss Wood, also a graduate from the nurses training school, lived in Evanston, Ill.

Red Cross unit No. 12, since its departure for France known as Base Hospital No. 14, left Chicago May 16. It was composed of 247 persons of whom 24 were physicians, sixty-five nurses and 153 enlisted men. Dr. Fred A. Besley was director of the unit. Many of the men were students at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., and the University of Chicago. Ten of the nurses registered from Evanston.

President Johnson also announced that the league would denote the proceeds of the game to be played in New York, June 10 at the first American engineering corps sent to France. PRESIDENT WILL PROCLAIM WEEK FOR RED CROSS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Rev. L. P. Franklin, president of the Newark Chapter of the Red Cross, has received the following telegram from the White House:

"The President has decided that instead of a Red Cross Day there shall be a Red Cross Week in June. The full plan for this week campaign will be outlined at a meeting of the chairman of the chapter finance committee at Red Cross headquarters Friday, May 25 at 11 o'clock. The President would like to have as full an attendance as possible at this conference."

"JOSEPH P. TEMULITY, 'Secretary to the President.' To date 538 memberships have been received from the American Bottle company. The men of this factory will contribute over $600 to the Red Cross."

Reports from the Wehrle plant show that 550 Red Cross members were secured there among the employees. Among the memberships enrolled in the Newark Red Cross Saturday were five from a Canadian family living in Newark. The parents and each of their children joined, the children using the last of their Christmas money to buy Red Cross memberships.

The work room in the Rider block will be open Thursday. Last Thursday 25 women spent the day in making dressings. All who report next Thursday will please wear wash dresses to bring large apportion.

A high school branch is now being organized to work in the domestic science room of the high school. W. E. Hopkins and Mrs. T. A. Bazler were driven to Croton this afternoon by Capt. W. C. Miller. They go to organize a Red Cross branch at Croton.

Granville, Johnstown, Pataskala and Utica now have Red Cross chapters, all branches of the Newark chapter. Utica has just been organized with a charter membership of 50. Miss Mary Trowbridge is the secretary.

Mrs. George E. Pickup will have charge of the Red Cross booth at the Manufacturers and Merchants Exposition next week. Mrs. W. H. Lewis will be in charge on Monday; Mrs. Fred Mosteller, Tuesday; Mrs. Clarence Helsey, Wednesday; Mrs. E. C. Wright, Thursday; Mrs. M. R. Davidson, Friday, and Mrs. W. C. Gardner, Saturday.

SUPREME COURT DEFINES NEW COMPENSATION LAWS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 21.—The New York workmen's compensation law, recently upheld as constitutional by the supreme court, was construed today by the court as not applicable to the injured on ships while in New York navigable waters. The General Federal Maritime laws, the court decided, are exclusive and paramount.

The Ohio workmen's compensation and employers' liability laws, the supreme court decided, are applicable to workmen injured on ships while in Ohio navigable waters. The New York law by today's decision was construed as not applicable to railroad workmen injured while actually in interstate commerce. As to such the federal employers' liability act was held paramount and exclusive.

The supreme court reversed New York state compensation awards to James W. Field, a New York Central railroad track laborer. Operation of the Ohio laws was held by the court limited to vessels engaged solely in interstate commerce, the court deciding that states cannot through their own workmen's compensation laws interfere with the federal law, held to be supreme as affecting vessels in interstate commerce.

CHICAGO WILL HAVE BRITISH MEN AS GUESTS

Members of Commission Finish Work In Washington This Week

CONFER WITH GOETHALS OF THE SHIPPING BOARD

Destruction of Shipping is Dangerous But Not Yet
Fatal

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 21.—Announcement was made today that the British mission will finally leave Washington this week for a brief visit to Chicago and then visit Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa. In Chicago the arrangements for the mission's entertainment will be in the hands of Mayor Thompson and will include a formal luncheon.

Shipping problems were discussed today, first by Secretary Balfour with members of the mission and later Chairman Denman and Major General Goethals of the shipping board. British trade experts in conference with American officials have worked out accurately the amount of tonnage necessary to continue the life-flow to the allies and the shipping board has detailed a program for meeting that need.

The British are understood to have supplied a priority schedule of the order of importance of the various exports with the minimum amounts necessary. At the same time they have supplied the shipping board with full figures of their total tonnage, new construction and rate of depletion. Officials stated frequently recently that the rate of destruction is most dangerous though not yet fatal. Mr. Balfour today also said J. P. Morgan and it is understood they discussed the future relations of Morgan and company to the British government. Just as the former have given up placing loans now that the government is doing that work it is probable that they will also give up the purchase of munitions and other supplies when the detailed arrangements for central official buying committee are completed.

Christopher Phillips, of the board of trade, will remain in this country after the mission goes. It is probable also that Lord Eustace Percy, Judge Amos, Major Rees of the Aviation corps, and Geoffrey Buler, of the foreign office, will also stay on with possibly others.

WAR TAX DEBATE CONTINUES; NEW PROPOSALS MADE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 21.—Hope of passing the war revenue bill within the next two days was not strong among house leaders today, particularly because the ways and means committee was still toiling over the question of higher second class mail rates proposed by the bill. Even after agreeing on these rates, the committee must pass on the provisions for taxing advertising, automobiles and musical instruments, before the house itself can make much progress.

Another meeting of the ways and means committee today resulted in no definite decision on second class mail rates or the advertising tax. A new graduated second class mail rate proposal, ranging from a cent and a half a pound in the first zone to five cents in the eighth, received much consideration today in committee. It will be perfected and discussed again tomorrow.

An amendment to tax raw cotton at $2.00 a bale proposed by Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, was ruled out on a point of order in the house after prolonged and heated debate.

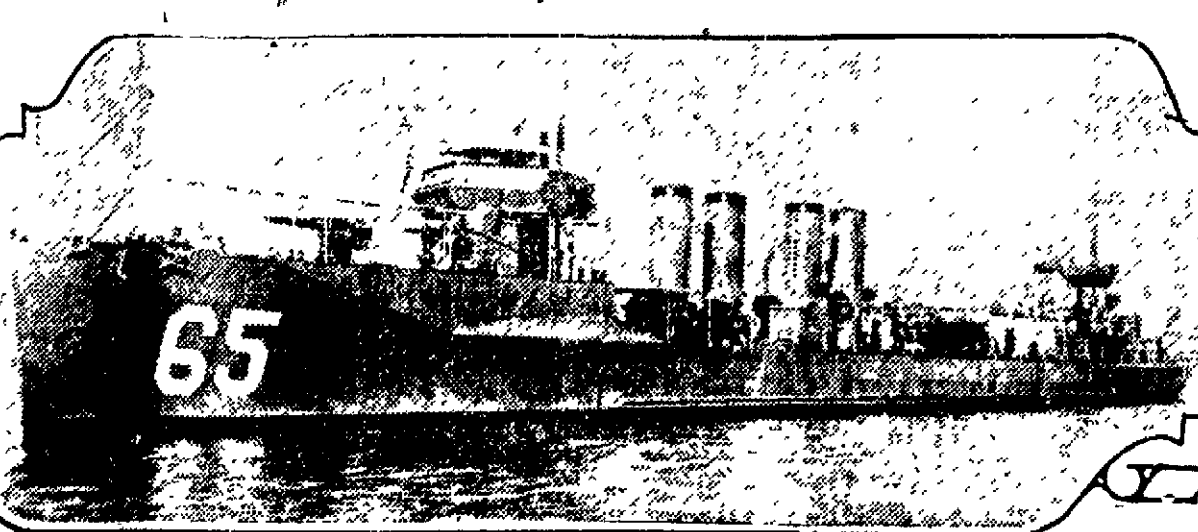

Rejection of the cotton tax probably means no domestic sugar tax will be added to the measure. Representative Moore contended that such a tax would raise an additional $30,000,000. Arguments against the proposals were chiefly that it would be as fast to tax wheat, oats, barley, rye and steel as to tax cotton.

A proposal by Representative Kelly, of Michigan, to strike out the five per cent tax on automobiles at the factory was rejected by a vote of 85 to 48. Debate then began on the Doremus amendment to levy the tax on manufacturers earning more than eight per cent on their capital stock. The Doremus amendment was adopted 96 to 92.

DESTROYER IS LOOKING FOR U-BOATS IN BRITISH WATERS

The United States destroyer Davis is one of the American warships now in British waters looking for u-boats. These vessels are manned by the cream of the American navy, and they are expected to greatly reduce the submarine toll, which before their arrival had reached alarming proportions.

TRY WOMAN FOR FATAL EXPLOSION IN 'FRISCO PARADE

(Associated Press Telegram)

San Francisco, May 21.—Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of Thomas J. Mooney who is under sentence of death for murder, growing out of the preparedness day bomb explosion here on July 22, 1916, when ten persons were killed or fatally wounded was placed on trial today in the superior court on the same charge.

Mrs. Mooney, a music teacher, is one of five persons indicted for murder as a result of the explosion and is the third to be tried. Warren K. Billings, the first defendant, was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. Mooney's conviction followed. The case of both are now on appeal in the state supreme court.

Israel Weinberg, a chauffeur and Edward Nolan, a machinist, the remaining defendants, are awaiting trial. Judge Frank H. Dunne, in whose court Mrs. Mooney will defend herself, is expected to withdraw voluntarily from the case today in favor of a jurist from another county. Charges of prejudice were recently made against Judge Dunne by Maxwell McNutt, attorney for the Mooneys, because of alleged utterances made by the jurist in connection with the Billings trial over which he presided. Judge Dunne later announced that he would not preside in the case.

The trial is expected to arouse much of the animosity that developed in Mooney's conviction when attorney McNutt openly charged District Attorney Charles F. Fickert, the police department with manufacturing evidence against the defendants.

About 150 witnesses have been summoned to testify in Mrs. Mooney's trial. Mrs. Mooney, it was understood, will attempt to prove by photographs that she was on the roof of a building many blocks away at the time of the explosion.

SWEDEN INDIGNANT; GRAIN SHIPS TORPEDOED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Stockholm, Sweden, May 21.—News that the Swedish steamers Vesterland, Aspen and Viken, laden with grain from England, had been sunk by German submarines was received here late Saturday night and caused much indignation.

The arrival of the steamships, which were released under the red cross flag, and the two of them aboard the Vesterland had been eagerly awaited.

Former Minister of Marine Botoren was the chief owner of the Vesterland, while the Transatlantic company of Gothenburg owned the Aspen and Viken.

The message which told of the sinking said that eight members of the crew of the Viken and two of them aboard the Vesterland had been lost.

Newspapers of all shades of opinion were united today in voicing indignation at the torpedoing of the three steamers.

EVANGELIST BROMLEY GETS $3200 AT SUNDAY SERVICES; 1800 HIT TRAIL

(Associated Press Telegram)

While the actual figures can not be learned today, it is estimated that the free will offering at the tabernacle, Sunday, all of which goes to Evangelist H. W. Bromley for his six weeks services amounted to $3,200. From this gift, the evangelist must pay his staff salary which is said to amount to about $1800 for the six weeks.

At the morning service yesterday about $2400, at the afternoon about $400, at the evening service about $350. Actual figures were not given. This morning Dr. Bromley stated that through a mixup in the records, the correct figures showing the number of conversions had not been reached but he estimated that they would number 1500 to 2000.

The evangelist said that while the results were not as good as he had experienced in other campaigns, he felt that much good had been accomplished and that the benefits would be far reaching and would be noticeable for some time in the future. He believes that the important national crisis had much to do with the final results.

Before leaving the city, Dr. Bromley highly commended the work being done here by the Y. M. C. A. and urged a greater interest in its work. He left a special request for the Newark boys to affiliate with the association and take part in its activities.

In the campaign conducted several years ago by Dr. Milford H. Lyon, the free will offering on the last day amounted to $5243.76 and the number of converts reached 2687.

SUNDAY NIGHT.
Sunday night's service at the tabernacle brought to a close the revival service conducted by Dr. Henry W. Bromley of Kentucky, under the auspices of a number of the Newark protestant churches.

The great shed was jammed, the chorus put every last ounce of energy into its singing and Dr. Bromley preached his star sermon upon the punishment of the person who hardens his heart. The Young Peoples Societies came to the tabernacle in full force. Before the sermon commenced, Rev. Dr. Hazlett, of the First Presbyterian church presented Charles Winstead, chorus director, and Frank Harris, pianist, each with a ten dollar gold piece, the gift of the chorus in appreciation of their services.

The evangelist felt deeply the fact that he was leaving and as a result preached his very best. "Some people seem to think that God does not mean what he says," he said. "They figure it is a sort of a bluff. You are going to be taken by and by. God is interested in you and is looking for your welfare, but if you harden your heart you will suddenly be cut off for their duplicitous and hypocritical and I wonder why God does not with one fell swoop do away with us. God did it once with water and will do it again, by fire."

STASEL AND COONS NAMED BY FULTON FOR DRAFT BOARD

(Special to The Advocate)

Columbus, May 21.—Judge T. B. Fulton of Newark, has recommended to Governor Cox the appointment of Clarence D. Coons of Granville and Albert A. Stasel, Newark attorney, to be the selective conscription officers for Licking county.

Under the new federal law President Wilson has set Tuesday, June 5 as registration day at which time all men between the ages of 21 and 30 inclusive must register for army service. From the registration lists will be drawn the names of those who will be called to the colors.

Judge Fulton recommended Messrs. Coons and Stasel last week but declined to make public the names saying that the announcement should come from the governor's office. Judge Fulton could not have made a better appointment. Mr. Stasel is one of Newark's leading lawyers, a Wooster graduate and a man who is prominent in civic affairs. Prof. Coons is mayor of Granville, teacher of physics in Denison university and was formerly superintendent of schools at Granville. Mr. Stasel is a Republican.

Mr. Coons a Democrat. These men may be depended upon absolutely to do their full duty intelligently, fearlessly and without favoritism.

It is estimated that there are approximately 3,000 men in Licking county between the ages of 21 and 30 inclusive. On the Newark registration books today are names of 1,600 men between those ages. Licking county is to furnish from 300 to 500 in the new federal army and they will be chosen from those who register June 5. Those who fail to register June 5 are liable to one year's imprisonment with army service to follow.

BRITISH DRIVE NEW WEDGE INTO GERMANY'S LINE

Advance Made Along Mile of Bullecourt Sector In Sunday Attack

HOLD THE NEW POSITIONS AGAINST COUNTER ATTACK

French Foil German Plan In Champagne and Start
New Drive

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, May 21.—General Haig and Petain again pushing ahead with their offensive in Northern France and today both report new gains.

The firmness of the British hold on this sector of the Hindenburg line seriously threatening the Quent-Drocourt switch protecting Douai is attested by the failure of the German reactions. General Haig is well maintaining his initiative and bit by bit forcing the Germans to give ground.

Not only did the British prove themselves able to hold their gains of the morning against heavy counter attacks but to resume their offensive the same day and push further ahead, maintaining their second advance also against renewed counter attacks.

The French for their part in the great battle have resumed their advance in the Champagne. Having foiled the Crown Prince's desperate and costly effort to regain control of the Chemin des Dames plateau on the Aisne front, General Petain turned to the champagne sector and struck northward on the Moronville heights.

Several lines of German trenches were captured in these operations and some 150 prisoners taken. All the important observation posts in this section of the front are now in French hands facilitating their further advance in the drive calculated to flank the Germans out of the salient to the northwest projecting towards Rheims.

Berlin's official statement today admits that gains were effected by both the British and the French. The British aimed at much more than they accomplished, the German office says, having attacked on a front of several miles along which the Germans maintained their positions with the exception that a demolished trench was abandoned. The French are conceded footholds on Mont Carnillet and Mont Keil on the Champagne front.

There has been no let-up in the promising offensive launched by General Cadorna against the Austrians. He reports a new success by the Italians in the capture of a hill between Palliova and Brifovo and also the extension of the Italian positions in the Vodice area.

THE GERMAN VERSION.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, May 21, Vrs. London.—The German version of the British yesterday maintained their positions except in one demolished trench which was evacuated, according to plan during the British attack Sunday on an eight and one half mile front, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff. The German announcement says the French yesterday obtained a foothold on Mont Carnillet and on Mont Keil. Yesterday the Germans broached down 14 entente airplanes on the western front.

ITALIANS STILL GAINING.

VOLUNTEERS AID IN PREPARING FOR INDUSTRIAL EXPO.

Workmen today under the superintendence of Fred C. Evans began dismantling the interior of the tabernacle building preparatory to its use for the Merchants and Manufacturers exposition, to be held next week. This afternoon all the seats had been removed and a part of the booths have been erected.

Tomorrow professional decorators will begin the work of beautifying the interior. It will be in charge of the Lewis Decorating company of Atlantic City, and they promise to give their best efforts in arranging as fine interior decorations as have ever been made in Central Ohio.

The big exposition, to be given under the auspices of the Rotary club, will open its doors to the public next Monday night and will continue throughout the week. It will also be open Wednesday and Saturday nights. The Buckeye band will be present every night and will render special concerts.

The proceeds of the exposition will be given to the Red Cross chapter of this city and as it is for such a worthy cause no doubt the building will be filled every night.

This afternoon 30 business men volunteered for services at the tabernacle, a shortage of labor making it difficult to get sufficient labor. Seats are being torn down.

F. S. Neighbor and J. N. Pugh made a tour to Granville, Johnstown, Alexandria and Croton today, posting bills and placards advertising the exposition. The southern, eastern and western parts of the county will be covered later.

Snyder, American consul at Reichenberg, Bohemia and James D. Young, American consul at Fiume, Hungary.

Making a Garden.

Agriculture is nearly as old as man, and since it began it is probable that farmers have been studying out balanced rations for domestic animals, but even yet few housekeepers have any real scientific ideas on feeding the family. Your state agricultural college or the department of agriculture, Washington, can help you out in this, and you should take the matter into consideration in making your garden and see to it that your vegetables include the most nutritious and health giving properties. Every farmer knows that when a horse works all day he should receive certain feed and when he is idle—in rainy weather, for instance—he gets different rations. How about a man or a child? Do you know how to set your table to get the maximum results and keep perfect health? Do you serve the same food to the men working in the heat of the harvest field, to the boy going to school and to the babies? Your garden should contribute to the health and happiness of each.—Reclamation Record.

FREAKS IN TRADE CAUSED BY WAR

Wool Now Comes From Iceland and Cotton From China.

The Canaries Send Onions to Uncle Sam—Manufacturers Are Searching Every Corner of the Globe For Different Kinds of Materials and Food-stuffs.

Wool Now Comes From Iceland and Cotton From China.

Wool from Iceland, cotton from China, beans from Brazil and lobsters from South Africa are among the eccentricities of commerce in these days of high prices and interruption of the usual trade currents. An analysis by the National City bank of New York of the commerce of the United States for the latest month for which detailed figures are available, February, showed the arrival of 4,300 pounds of clothing wool from Iceland and also of 3,000,000 pounds of cotton from China, this being imported into the country which prides itself on producing two-thirds of the cotton of the world.

The records of 1916 also show imports of lobsters from Japan and onions from the Canary Islands. Of the 5,000,000 bushels of onions imported into this country in the last five years the Canary Islands furnished 150,000 bushels and Australia, on the opposite side of the world, about an equal quantity. Of the $5,000,000 worth of mushrooms and truffles imported in that same period more than $250,000 worth came from China, Japan and adjacent territory. The bank's compilation showed that of the $3,500,000 worth of eggs imported since the beginning of the war China alone sent nearly $2,000,000 worth. Madagascar is now contributing vanilla beans and material for hat manufacture, while $2,000,000 worth of peanuts have been sent from China and Japan since the start of the war.

LOAN AMAZES ITALY.

Only America Could Make It, Rome Paper Declares.

The Giornale d'Italia of Rome in a long article on the American loan says that to give a practical idea of the largeness of the sum one must have recourse to fantastic comparisons. The American war credit contains practically seven times the number of minutes lived by humanity since the birth of Christ.

Never since the beginning of the world has any group of bankers, it says, given at one stroke such a colossal loan to states at war, and only a great confederation like America can permit herself such liberality.

IRISH CONVENTION CALLED AT ONCE BY LLOYD GEORGE

London, May 21.—It was announced by Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons today that the government proposed to summon immediately a convention of representative Irishmen in Ireland to submit to the British parliament a constitution for the future government of Ireland.

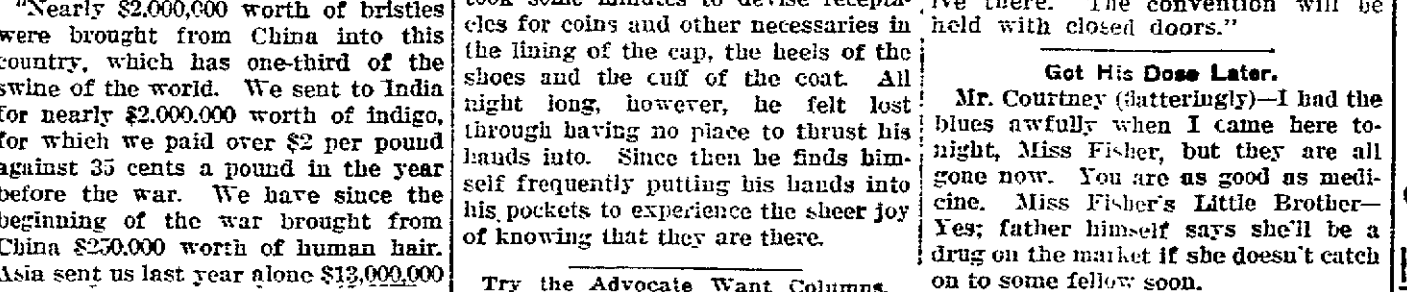

Premier Lloyd George stated today that the chairman of the proposed Irish convention will be nominated by the crown.

"If a substantial agreement is reached regarding the character and scope of the constitution framed by the convention," said the premier, "the government will take the necessary steps to enable the imperial parliament to give legislation effective there. The convention will be held with closed doors."

EXPRESSON, "TENTED CITY" WILL NOT DESCRIBE TRAINING CAMPS IN WHICH UNCLE SAM WILL TEACH BOYS ART OF WAR

Old-fashioned training camp and (below) clapboard quarters of modern army school at Fort Myer, Va.

The time-worn description "tented city" will not fit the new training camps in which on September 1 500,000 young American men will begin to learn the art of war. The embryo soldiers are to be quartered in shed-like houses, like those shown in the lower picture. They are much more comfortable than tents, and much cheaper in the long run.

LIBRARY BENEFIT AT AUDITORIUM TUESDAY, MAY 22

The Mary Pickford picture at the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening will be a Public Library benefit. One-half of the receipts for the day will be given to the library.

Because of the public announcement made yesterday regarding the library benefit, Mr. Fenberg desires to make this statement in order that the public may be acquainted with the facts:

"Editor of The Advocate: Several months ago the women's clubs of Newark were asked to assist the library and with that in view the Review club last winter requested the Auditorium management to give a benefit. The Auditorium gladly consented and agreed to give one-half of the receipts of any day's business to the library. In order not to conflict with the tabernacle meetings, May 22 was decided upon. According to contract made between the Review club and the Auditorium I advertised the event but because of criticism of some of the attractions at the Auditorium, objection was raised by some of the club women to carrying out this contract and I am told that a meeting of the Federation was held Saturday evening at which time the Review club was instructed to cancel its contract with me. A committee from the Federation brought word to me Saturday night but I have decided to proceed with the benefit independently and shall gladly turn over to the library one-half of tomorrow's receipts."

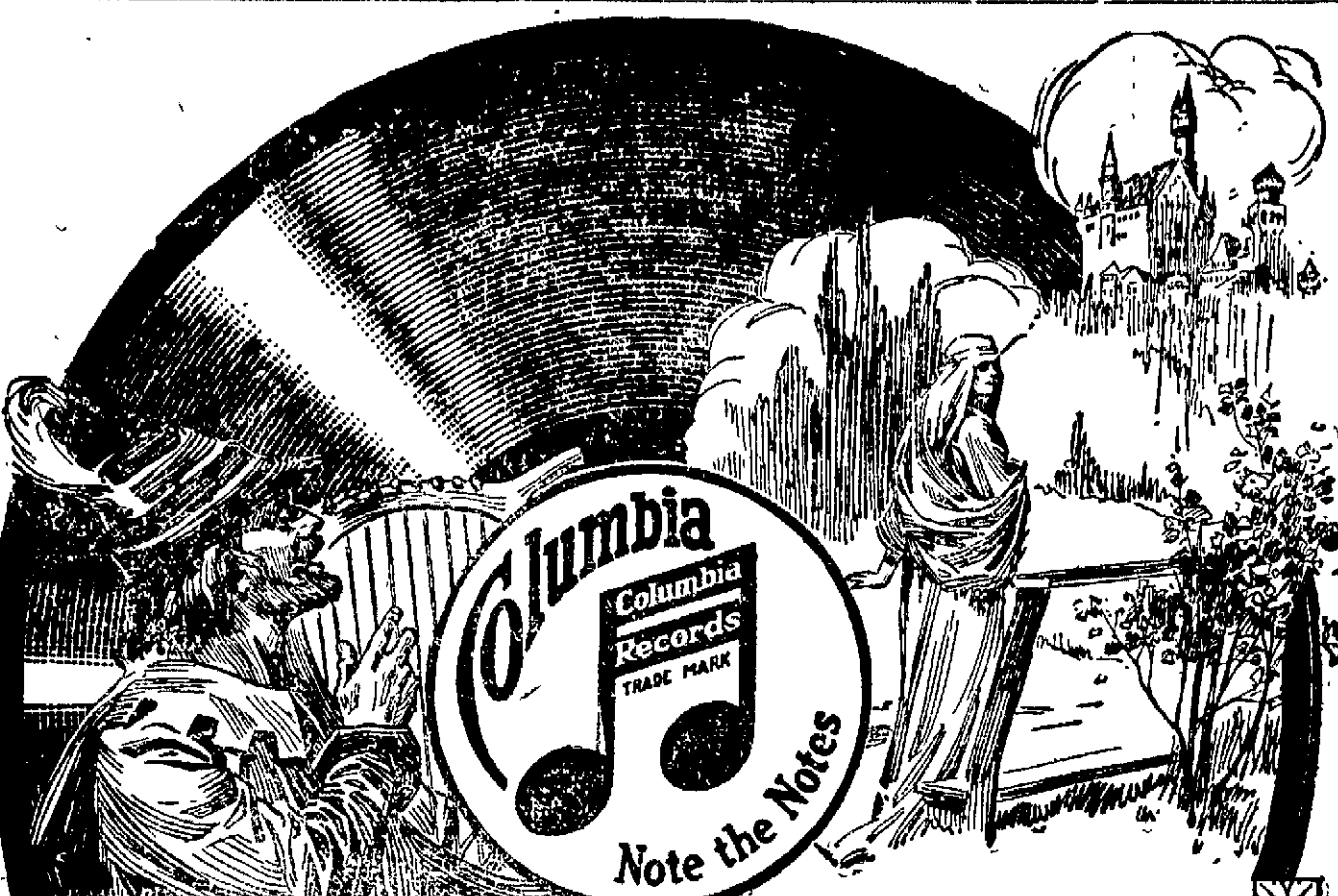

It is not necessary and is perhaps not becoming in me to refer to the public utterance made yesterday regarding the matter further than to say that the women of the Review club need no defense.

FRENCH DESTROYERS IN CLASH WITH GERMANS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Berlin, via London, May 21.—An engagement between German and French torpedo boats off the coast of Flanders is reported in an official announcement from the admiralty. The announcement says: "On the morning of the 20th off the coast of Flanders, a short out-post engagement took place between German and French torpedo boats. The enemy boats were repeatedly hit by our artillery and our vessels returned without losses or damage."

The French official statement issued yesterday reported that a flotilla of German destroyers had been driven back to its base by a patrol of four French torpedo boats. The statement said that one of the French vessels had suffered some damage.

JUNE RECORDS

PABLO CASALS' enchanted rendering of Wagner's beautiful "Evening Star" from "Tannhäuser" has a sheer, pure loveliness never yet attained by anyone but Casals on the 'cello. It has a ravishing glory and sweetness of tone—a human voice sings in the vibrant strings!

Other gems are Ketelbey's symphonic tone-picture "In a Monastery Garden," with the calls of nesting birds and the deep-voiced intoning of the "Kyrie Eleison" by a splendid male chorus lending it an unusual interest; then the first (and exclusively Columbia) recording of the world-famed New York Philharmonic Orchestra under the personal direction of Josef Strinsky; and Oscar Seagle's inspired rendering of "The Snowy-Breasted Pearl" and the quaint old "The Ash Grove." VAST POWERS ARE GIVEN DIRECTOR OF FOOD SUPPLIES

Washington, May 21.—Blanket authority is necessary for the control of food supplies in this country if the nation and its allies are to get the most from the food supplies on hand and those to be harvested, according to Herbert C. Hoover, appointed Saturday food controller for America. Mr. Hoover in announcing his policy, declared that he believed the exercise of the full authority would not be necessary except "in a few cases where some small and selfish minority proves unwilling to put the nation's interests above advantage."

President Wilson, in announcing Hoover's appointment, declared the powers he had asked for, were no greater than the occasion required. His statement follows:

"It is very desirable, in order to prevent misunderstanding or alarm and to assure co-operation in a vital matter, that the country should understand exactly the scope and purpose of the very great powers which I have thought it necessary in the circumstances to ask the Congress to put in my hands with regard to our food supplies. These powers are very great, indeed, but they are no greater than it has proved necessary to lodge in the other governments which are conducting this momentous war, and their object is stimulation and conservation, not arbitrary restraint or injurious interference with the normal processes of production. They are intended to benefit and assist the farmer and all those who play a legitimate part in the preparation, distribution and marketing of foodstuffs."

"It is proposed to draw a sharp line of distinction between the normal activities of the government, represented in the department of agriculture in reference to food production, conservation and marketing on the one hand, and the emergency activities, necessitated by the war, in reference to the regulation of food distribution and consumption, on the other. All measures intended directly to extend the normal activities of the department of agriculture in reference to the production, conservation and the marketing of farm crops will be administered as in normal times, through that department, and the powers asked for over distribution and consumption, over exports, imports, prices, purchase and requisition of commodities, storing and the like, which may require regulation during the war, will be placed in the hands of a commissioner of food administration appointed by the President and directly responsible to him."

"The object sought to be served by the legislation asked for here: Full inquiry into the existing available stocks of foodstuffs and into the costs and practices of the various food producing and distributing trades; the prevention of all unwarranted hoarding of every kind and of the control of foodstuffs by persons who are not in any legitimate sense producers, dealers or traders; the requisitioning when necessary for the public use of food supplies and of the equipment necessary for handling them properly; the licensing of wholesome and legitimate mixtures and milling percentages, and the prohibition of the unnecessary over-wasteful use of foods."

"Authority is asked to establish prices—but not in order to limit the profits of the farmers, but only to guarantee to them when necessary a minimum price which will insure them a profit where they are asked to attempt new crops and to secure the consumer against extortion by breaking up corners and attempts at speculation when they occur, by fixing temporarily a reasonable price at which middlemen must sell."

"I have asked Herbert Hoover to undertake this all-important task of food administration. He has expressed his willingness to do so on condition that he is to receive no payment for his services and that the whole of the forces under him, exclusive of clerical assistants, shall be employed so far as possible upon the same volunteer basis. He has expressed his confidence that this difficult matter of food administration can be successfully accomplished through the voluntary co-operation of producers and legitimate distributors of foodstuffs and with the help of the women of the country.

Th' sooner your wife gits her feet doiled up fer summer th' sooner things at home 'll git back t' normal. Evidently lots o' folks that git their pictures in th' papers only imagine they're cured.

"Although it is absolutely necessary that unquestionable powers shall be placed in my hands in order to insure the success of this administration of the food supplies of the country, I am confident that the exercise of those powers will be necessary only in the few cases where some small and selfish minority proves unwilling to put the nation's interests above personal advantage and that the whole country will heartily support Mr. Hoover's efforts by supplying the necessary volunteer agencies throughout the country for the intelligent control of food consumption and securing the co-operation of the most capable leaders of the very interests most directly affected, that the exercise of the powers deputed to him will rest very successfully upon the good will and co-operation of the people themselves and that the ordinary economic machinery of the country will be left substantially undisturbed."

"The proposed food administration is intended, of course, only to meet a manifest emergency and to continue only while the war lasts. Since it will be composed for the most part of volunteers, there need be no fear of the possibility of a permanent bureaucracy arising out of it. All control of consumption will disappear when the emergency has passed. It is with that object in view that the administration considers it to be of pre-eminent importance that the existing associations of producers and distributors of food-stuffs should be mobilized and made use of on a volunteer basis. The successful conduct of the projected food administration by such means will be the finest possible demonstration of the willingness, the ability and the efficiency of democracy, and of its justified reliance upon the freedom of individual initiative. The last thing that any American could contemplate with equanimity would be the introduction of anything resembling Prussian autocracy into the food control in this country."

"It is of vital interest and importance to every man who produces food and to every man who takes part in its distribution that these policies thus liberally administered should succeed and succeed altogether. It is only in harmony that we can prove it to be absolutely unnecessary to resort to the rigorous and drastic measures which have proved to be necessary in some of the European countries."

AGE NO BAR

Here's Newark testimony.

Mrs. J. M. Conrad, 181 E. Main St., says: "I believe it was a cold that settled on my kidneys that caused me to suffer from kidney trouble. I felt miserable across my back. There was a dull ache there and I was weak and ailing all over. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills was all I needed to cure me of the backache and make me well in every way. I now enjoy excellent health and think it is remarkable at my age." (Statement given September 16, 1914.)

BURKE OFFERS HELP TO DAYTON PLANT RUINED BY BLAZE

William Burke of the Burke Golf company, 15 Memphis, Tenn., this week attending the National Hickory Dimension association's annual meeting. Col. Burke has been in the hickory business for over 40 years and is considered one of the best posted men in his line in the United States. He was for years a member of the National Hardwood Manufacturers' association and a member of the Hickory Grading Rules association. Mrs. Burke accompanied him as far as Dayton and will remain there with Mr. Burke's daughter until he returns from the south. Upon arriving in Dayton Saturday Mr. Burke learned that the International Golf Shaft company of Dayton, an organization which Mr. Burke started eight years ago, burned out completely the previous night. Mr. Burke at once offered the owner of the Dayton plant any assistance that the Burke Golf company of this city may be able to give.

Granville

(Special to The Advocate) Granville, May 21.—There are to be two public benefit entertainments in Granville this week, in which everyone is equally interested and which will call for only nominal fees for admission. The first of these will be the photoplay in the Opera House, of Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous story, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," featuring Mary Pickford, on Friday afternoon and evening. Mrs. Mabel Ashton and Miss Faye Hulshizer will furnish the music. Although tickets have been sold in advance by the public school children, admission can be secured at the box office at the usual rates. The second of these entertainments will be the presentation of the clever little play given last week by the adelpians under the direction of Miss Lily Belle Setton. The play entitled "Mister Pearless and Company" will be repeated in Recital Hall, Thursday evening at 8:15, for the benefit of the Red Cross. Everyone in the village can afford to attend both these entertainments. In fact he can hardly afford to miss either of them.

Professor C. E. Goodell, head of the department of Political Economy and one of the most up to date educators in Denison University, will shortly sever his connection with the college and the town, to assume the duties of his new position as president of Franklin college, in Indiana. That institution has planned a great home coming for commencement week, to do honor to the popular new president, which will outdo all previous demonstrations of a like nature in that place.

Arthur Chaffee of Chicago, an alumnus of Denison, was a weekend guest of his brother at the Beta House. The Chaffee family has sent five brothers and two sisters to old Denison.

Ernest Woodward of Columbus, was a week-end guest of his Beta brothers.

Mrs. Frank Rye is the guest of Columbus friends, today.

Saturday seemed to be out of doors day, judging from the activities of the young people. The afternoon was devoted to field sports and the evening to fraternity stunts, commonly known as "bacon bats."

In the inter-class field contests, the freshmen walked away from all competitors with a score of 83 points; the juniors won second with 30; sophomores third with 14; the seniors last with 3.

Beta Theta Pi entertained with their spring party on Saturday, May 19. The function was in the nature of a lawn party held a few miles out from Granville in the woods and the place was tastefully decorated with Japanese lanterns. The young people were carried in and out in hayracks. The guests numbered the following: Mr. and Mrs. Karl Eckman, Misses Edith Wilson, Helen Robinson, Lora Palmer, Ruth Eldridge, Olive Hunt, Mary MacDonald, Helen Watson, Helen Ray, Pauline Ireland, Florence Carney, Frances McGee, Evelyn Cathcart, Lillian Eldridge, Elizabeth Evans, Emily Prior, Margaret Seshoales, Kathleen Wellwood, Freida Rustel, Gertrude Smith, Ruth Sedgwick, Madeline Edgerly, Katherine Wood and Winifred Parsons.

Sunday dinner guests at the Beta House on the 21st included Dr. and Mrs. Williams, Madeline Edgerly, Nelson Rupp, Arthur Chaffee, E. F. Woodward and the Rev. Rector, D.D.

EXCURSIONS ON B. & O. GIVE WAY TO WAR TRAFFIC

Baltimore, May 21.—Acting on the recommendations of the War Board, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is preparing to curtail its passenger service so far as possible and with least inconvenience to the public in order to keep its main lines in the industrial districts and coal regions unencumbered for the movement of foodstuffs, supplies and materials of all kinds required by the Government as well as the public and in order that there may be sufficient equipment to handle this traffic under any emergency. The curtailment of passenger service will release a large number of cars and locomotives that can be utilized in the interest of national defense. The first service to be affected will be excursions and special parties moving to conventions and for other reasons at reduced fares.

THE WAR and the Encyclopaedia Britannica

WE have decided to undertake the preparation of a New Volume to be added to the present 29 volumes of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, 11th Edition.

The New Volume will be devoted to the war and will have the effect of bringing the information in the Encyclopaedia Britannica down to the date of the conclusion of peace.

It will contain a full and authoritative account of the historical background out of which the war sprang, with special reference to the political, social and racial conflict of interests of all the nations concerned.

It will give exhaustive treatment to the progress of the war, step by step and in all countries.

It will show the immediate results of the war not only on the military side, but on the economic side as well, and it will thus enable the reader to foresee its ultimate results in the readjustments that will follow in all nations. The war's geographical results will also be fully dealt with, and new maps, to take place of present ones, will be given wherever there are changes in present boundaries.

The new volume will be written on the same high level of authority, comprehensiveness and impartiality which has always distinguished the Encyclopaedia Britannica, and which has made its pronouncements on any controversial subject of unique value to the reader.

The editor will take especial care to give readers a judicial account of the war, and will exercise such control over the contributors that the narrative will be free from partisan feeling and national prejudice. Those who will be asked to contribute will be writers of the same standing and qualifications as those who wrote for the Britannica itself.

The magnitude of the war, in which practically all countries are directly concerned, makes it necessary that its history should be treated with the high authority that can only be attained by employing the incomparable resources of the Britannica; it also calls for the putting into concrete and authoritative form, for present-day readers and for posterity, of the facts of a chapter of history which will be of immeasurable influence on the future of civilization everywhere in the world. The War Volume will be, in fact, a complete reference work on the greatest war of history, and in its own field just as good a book as the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The New Volume will not only give a fair, unbiased and full account of the war itself—how it started, how it was fought, the changes and innovations it brought about—but it will also deal with the results of the war outside the sphere of fighting. Particular attention will be given to those economic factors in the present war which have led to the adoption by all the belligerents of new measures to safeguard their national welfare. Articles will also be written to tell of any new discoveries or progress in industry and science.

For instance, in surgery, aviation, submarine warfare and public hygiene there have been developments of primary importance. These and any other advances in knowledge will be fully dealt with. This will virtually make the New Volume a supplement to the Encyclopaedia Britannica itself. Whether peace shall be made this year, next year, or the year after, the additional new matter will bring the contents of the Britannica abreast of the world's knowledge as it stands when peace has been made.

The date of publication will be as soon as possible after the end of the war.

THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, per H. M. P. President.

P. S.—We have received hundreds of letters asking about this New Volume since a newspaper paragraph announced that it was to be published. We therefore now wish to inform all owners of the Britannica that they will in due course be notified of the date of publication.

This New Volume will be issued in bindings to match their sets, whether they bought The Cambridge University Press or the low-priced "Handy Volume" issue, and the price at which it will be sold to owners of the Britannica will be the same as they paid per volume for the set of the Britannica which they already own.

THE LIBERTY BONDS.

The Liberty loan bond is a solemn promise of the United States to pay at maturity the amount of the bond to the holder thereof, and to pay interest semi-annually each year from the date of the issuance of the bond until it is fully and finally paid.

What is the security for a Liberty loan bond? The faith and honor of the United States, backed by all of the resources of the National and the American people. A Liberty loan bond is a mortgage on all the resources and taxing powers of the government and all the resources of the American people.

What is the nature of a Liberty loan bond? There are two kinds of Liberty loan bonds. Bearer bonds are to be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, and $1,000. These Bearer bonds, which are made payable to bearer, have interest coupons attached which are detached by the holder when the interest installments they represent are due, and can be cashed at any bank the same as a United States treasury note.

Registered bonds are to be issued, which are registered as to both principal and interest, in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $50,000, and $100,000. Checks for the amount of interest due will be mailed out semi-annually to the holders of these registered bonds.

What are the terms of Liberty loan bonds? Liberty loan bonds of the first issue of $2,000,000,000 are to bear date of June 15, 1917, and to run for thirty years, except that the government reserves the right to pay them fifteen years after date. If this right is not exercised by the government fifteen years from date, the bonds will run the full thirty years.

These bonds bear interest at 3 1/2 per cent per annum, and the interest is payable semi-annually. Each one may do his share. Are you doing yours? If not, make an investment, whether it be $50 or $50,000,000, whether you can pay for it in full or whether you must arrange to pay for it during the next 12 months, but do your part to the extent of your ability.

What other special advantages do these bonds possess? They are tax-exempt. If your city, county, and State taxes are three mills on the dollar, a not unusual tax, these bonds are equivalent to ordinary corporate bonds or other investments bearing 6 1/2 per cent.

In addition, no Federal tax which war conditions may later make necessary will effect these bonds. The only tax these bonds are subject to is the inheritance tax, which applies to all property of all kinds whatsoever. Application for one or more of the Liberty bonds may be made through any Newark bank. Buy a Liberty loan bond not only as a good investment but a patriotic duty.

All three branches of America's fighting forces, the army, navy and the marine corps will be represented soon in the war zone of Europe. American destroyers are already in European waters combating the submarine menace and General Pershing is about to lead a division of 25,000 to 40,000 men to France. Uncle Sam is entering the great war in no half-hearted way but is bending every energy toward defeat of Prussian absolutism.

One of the New York banks announces a subscription for $25,000,000 of the Liberty bonds. About half of the two billion dollar issue has now been subscribed.

BIG THINGS AT STAKE.

(Manufacturers' Record.)

The resources of a nation which owns one-third of the accumulated wealth of the world, whose wealth of raw materials is so vast as to be beyond adequate description, with a population of more than 100,000,000 of the most active, virile people on earth, are back of the government's Liberty loan. There is no other security on earth so safe and sound as this loan. But more than its safety is back of it. The ability of the country to meet the great responsibility which has been thrust upon us of protecting our own national life and fighting Germany in Europe in order that Germany might not fight us upon our own shores is back of this loan.

Armies and navies would be of no value without money, the shew of war.

We must spend billions in building ships. We must finance a great army, and a great navy.

We must finance for the allies, who for two-and-a-half years have been battling for our safety.

Behind the fleet of England we have been hiding, free from danger so long as that fleet held command of the sea, but without our help this fleet would be in danger and so we are in the contest for our own safety.

Every man, woman and child in the country is equally interested in helping to maintain this fight, for it is not a question so much of the money or the property at stake as it is the question of our own lives, and those of our families and friends.

These are the things at stake.

It behooves every one, therefore, to the limit of his or her ability to contribute to this campaign by investing in Liberty bonds.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR.

"Food administrator" is the official title of Herbert C. Hoover, who has just accepted the appointment from President Wilson. The word administrator has a much softer sound than "dictator."

Mr. Hoover will begin immediately the work of food administration through voluntary cooperation and direction of legitimate distributors of food stuffs and with the help of the women of the country. He and his assistants will serve without compensation.

There is need of drastic authority but President Wilson expresses the belief that only the selfish minority will force the exercise of the whip in Mr. Hoover's hands.

Mr. Hoover is a very capable man and is doubtless the most efficient man who could be named to take up the important task that has been assigned to him.

THE WAR.

Arthur Henderson, member of the British war council, estimates the number of men killed in the war thus far at seven millions and he estimates the total casualties at more than 45,000,000—greater than the population of the United Kingdom.

Though the war has waged for nearly three years, there is no immediate prospect for cessation of hostilities. The United States government is preparing for a long war—three to five or more years.

The severe character of the struggle and its prolongation has tempted many to ask why peace should not be attempted by other means. To this Mr. Henderson says:

"It was because the challenge thrown down by Germany in 1914 still holds good.

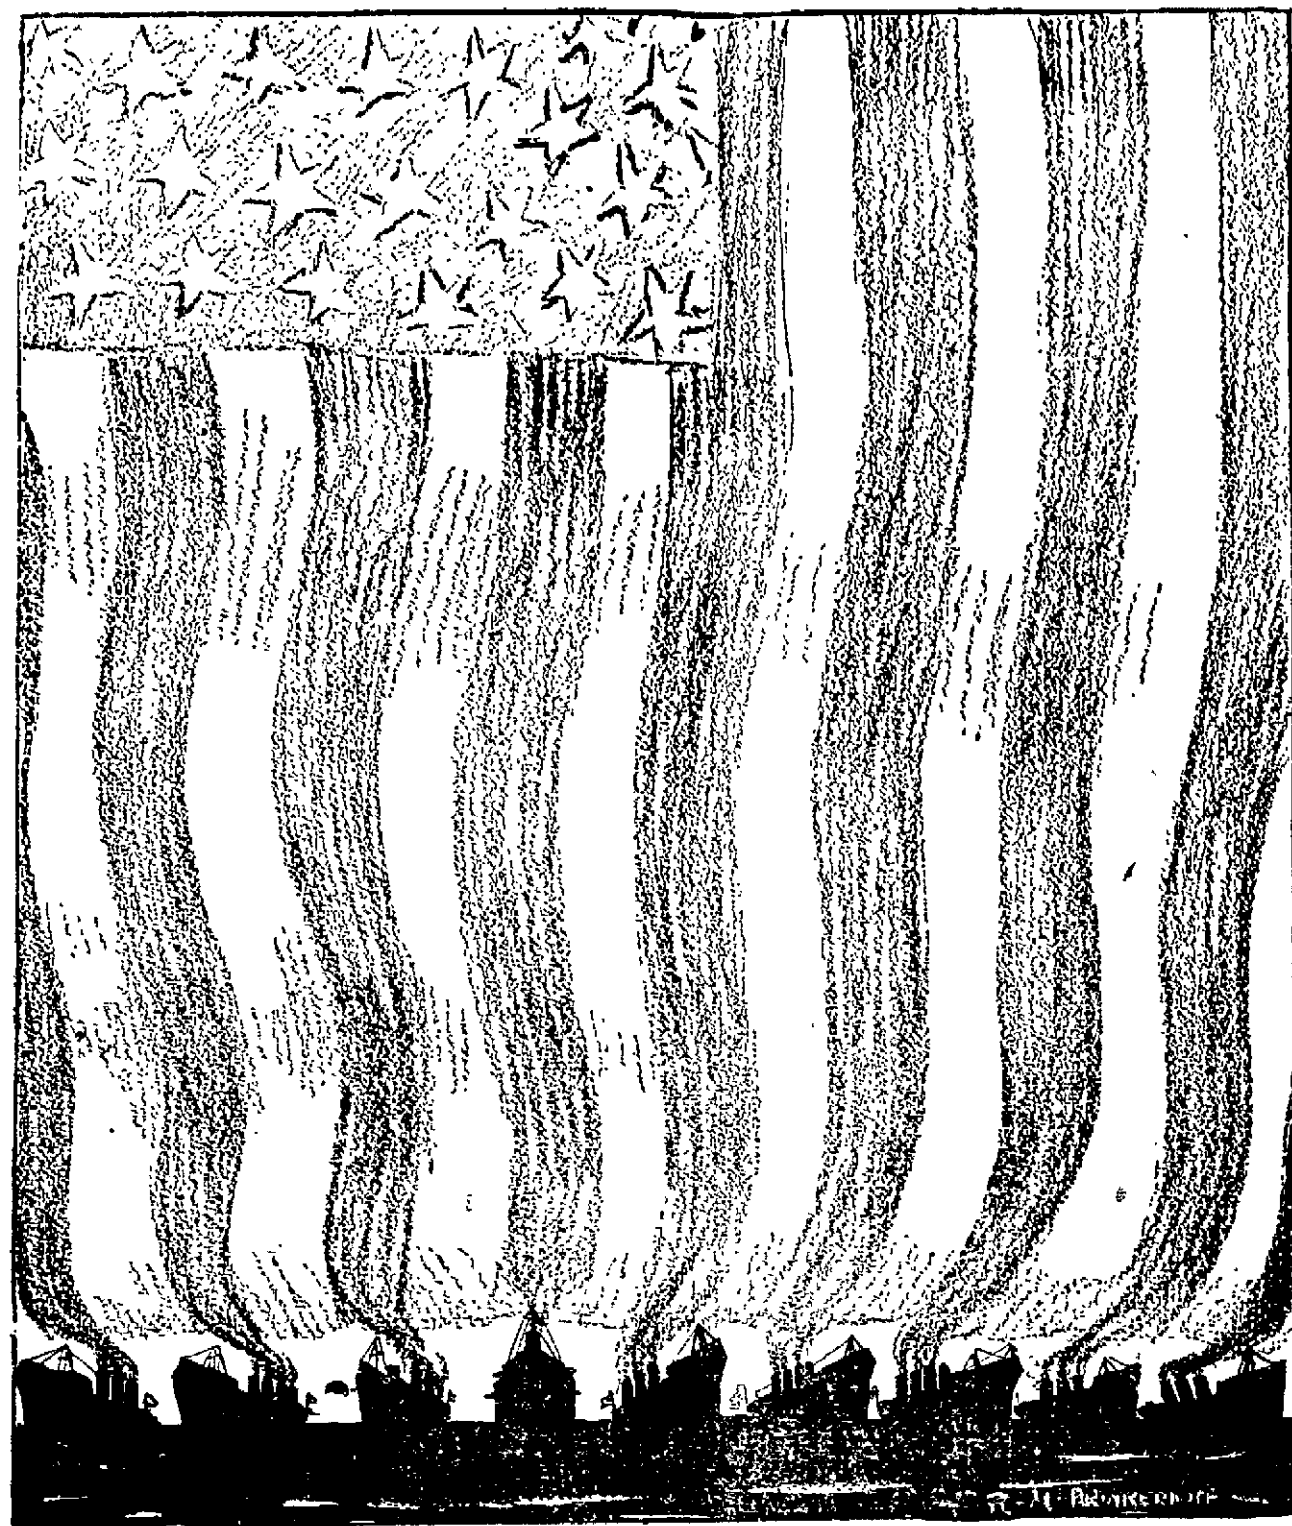

"The just of world domination which dictated the policy of military action on the part of Germany continued to be supported by the German Emperor and his Prussian advisers. Until the great act of liberation has been fully achieved the allies cannot falter."

The boys in blue put down the rebellion at $13 a month and now the boys in khaki are to be paid $30 a month. That will enable the new soldier to send a considerable fund back home, for he is furnished food and clothing, in addition to his salary. So if he doesn't patronize the sutler too much, his home people can be much aided. As a rule the boys who sent the most money home were the best soldiers. It may be said, also, that the great advance in the soldiers' pay is unwarranted if he doesn't send nearly all of it home. That is one reason why the advance was made—to render some assistance to the folks at home. If it wasn't for that, the advance was a mistake, for a soldier in the field doesn't need very much money. Those who have the most of it get into the most trouble.

Fighting the Whole World

By Prof. W. H. Johnson, of Denison University.

It matters little that one or another of the "neutral" countries left finds reason for breaking diplomatic relations with Germany and begins preparation for possible participation in the great conflict. As a matter of fact, Germany has been making war on the whole world from the very outset.

Her passage over the borders of Belgium, accomplished even before war was formally declared, was an offence not simply against the sovereignty and the treaty rights of Belgium, but against every member of the great family of civilized and treaty-making nations of the whole world; for it was a violently demonstrated assertion that Germany did not consider herself bound by the great framework of international law and custom which the civilized states of the world have gradually built up.

This structure of international law had its foundations already laid at the very beginning of recorded history. The primitive peoples around the Mediterranean saw clearly enough, each for itself, that their safety at home was largely conditioned by their individual willingness to show respect for the rights of others, that these rights must to some extent be determined by custom and by more or less formal agreement, and that violation of such customs and agreements meant lasting stain to the honor of the violator.

As civilization has advanced, the edifice of international law has grown with it. It has grown to embrace more of the activities of life, and it has become more definite and imperative in its provisions. Without this growth, the international civilization of modern times would have been a simple impossibility, for it victory.

rests upon international relations which could no more exist without definite assurance of the sacredness of international obligations than the complex business life of modern times within any single nation could exist without assurance of the sacredness of individual obligations between man and man.

And the individual civilization of each separate nation is vitally linked with the development of international civilization. There is no greater incentive to progress than the stimulus of association with others whose ideas and outlook on life are somewhat different from our own. But this stimulus of association can do its work between nations, as between individuals, only where mutual confidence and respect is possible, where it is felt that on both sides there is a fundamental regard for truth and for commonly recognized standards of honor.

When Germany opened this war, then, by throwing to the winds her own sacred obligations, definitely given to other nations, and trampling upon age-long principles of international law and custom to which she was bound by her very participation in diplomatic relations with other powers, to say nothing of specific agreements, she made war upon the world in common in one of the most useful and vital of its common possessions—its laboriously built temple of International Law. There is no country in the world which would not be justified in taking up arms rather than to lose that country by which it has been attacked will not be a victory of France, England, Russia, Belgium, Serbia, Japan, or the United States, singly or combined, but a world-

Spirit of the Press

A Check to Soaring Prices.
There is one way to check mounting prices in products demanded by the Allies and there is now a prospect that it will be followed. The countries that have been competing for the purchase of supplies in the United States will hereafter act under an international agreement by which one agency will do the buying for all of them. Cut-throat competition by Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia is to cease. In their mad scramble for food products and munitions of war they have outbid each other and forced prices to the sky. In future there is to be a central purchasing body for all the nations and purchases are to be allotted according to their respective needs.—Buffalo Commercial.

Save the Babies.
A doctor lecturing in Chicago says that at least half of the babies that die are just as fit to live as the babies that do live, and that our greatest national waste is not in food, but in babies. If we gave more attention to the care of the little ones, looked after the problems of city sanitation a little closer, and used more common sense we could easily reduce infant mortality by one-half, and thus add to the potential strength of the race in a degree beyond understanding.—Omaha Bee.

Available Loan Money.
The loan can be absorbed by resources not actually in use, by money held subject to checks or by money in the savings banks. Hundreds of thousands of persons keep in their banks more than they really need as a personal reserve. Thousands have money in the postal savings banks. Thousands of timid persons actually keep money hidden in their own homes. If this great amount of money could be released for immediate circulation, it would be of vast advantage to the country.—Washington Post.

Alien Enemies.
We have arrested 125 alien enemies since the war began. Those 5,000,000 that Germany estimated would rise in rebellion must be delaying along with the million patriots that Mr. Bryan said would spring to arms over night.

Secretary Baker.
The truth is that Mr. Baker is now "making good" as secretary of war, and he should have credit for what he has already done to equip the army for service in the field.—New York Sun.

Loss of teeth is usually caused by Pyorrhea or by decay. Both usually develop only in the mouth where germs, rotten tartar is present.

SENRECO, a dentist's formula, REALLY CLEANS. It embodies specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. It is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly SAFE, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.

SUFFERED NINE YEARS

Many Remedies Tried in Vain. Well and Strong After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Spartanburg, S. C.—"For nine years I suffered from backache, weakness, and irregularities, and many remedies so I could hardly do my work. I tried many remedies but found no permanent relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great change for the better and am now well and strong so I have no trouble in doing my work. I hope every user of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will get as great relief as I did from its use."—Mrs. S. D. McABEE, 122 Dewey ave., Spartanburg, S. C.

The reason women write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women and that is a praiseworthy thing to do and such women should be highly commended.

Vegetables as Beautifiers.
If your skin is in need of whitening and softening, the best remedy is the homely cucumber in your kitchen garden as they have been known as splendid beautifiers for a long time. There are several ways of using this friendly vegetable, the simplest of which is to pare it, cut it in thick slices and rub it upon the face without further preparation. The juice is left on overnight and washed off with warm, not hot, water in the morning.

The best way to prepare a cucumber beauty lotion is to mash a cucumber into a pulp, place the pulp in half a pint of milk and set the whole upon the stove to come to a slow-boil. When it has come to a three minute boil, the lotion is removed and strained through a cloth or very fine strainer. The result is a cucumber cream, which is delightful to use if perfumed with rose water, essence of violet or lavender. This too is applied before retiring and washed off in the morning. It is an excellent whitener and is recommended for removing "collar lines."

Then there is the accomodating tomato. When our fingers are strained from cooking or the paring of vegetables, a piece of tomato rubbed upon them will whiten them nicely. The tomato juice is allowed to stay on the hands for some time, and is then washed off with soap and water. To whiten the chin use the common white potato. Pare the potato and rub it upon the chin or bind slices of it about the chin for a couple of hours daily. The potato is then removed and the skin washed with a mild soap and warm water, after which a good facial cream is rubbed in.

There is really no excuse for a woman being unbecomingly even if she has not the money with which to purchase expensive cosmetics for there remains her own garden as an unfailing source of supply.

Hot Weather Hair Grooming.
How very much our hair has to do with our good appearance and comparatively few women have the naturally wavy hair which always looks well in all kinds of weather, to the envy of her many less fortunate sisters. A summer girl's most serious problem is that of keeping the hair in curl in hot weather. The wise summer girl, whose locks are naturally straight, has however, discovered that an application of a curling fluid made of a tablespoon of bruised linseed to a pint of hot water, the water being poured over the whole allowed to stand several hours, will help wonderfully in keeping the hair in curl.

The resulting quince mucilage is thinned with a few drops of essence of thiol before the hair is moistened with the fluid. Apply the fluid just before wrapping the hair upon the curlers. There is also a curling fluid that can be applied to the hair and left to dry, curling the hair as it dries without the aid of curlers. It is made as follows: Potassium carbonate, 120 grains; ammonia water, one fluid dram; alcohol twelve drams; rosewater enough to make sixteen fluid ounces. In using moisten the hair, adjust it loosely and allow it to dry.

There is little or no excuse for the summer untidiness and wilted appearance of some girls and women during the hot months, for with a little care one can acquire that trim grooming that is a very vital part of charm and beauty.

Every Day Etiquette

"When soup is to be the first course served at a dinner, should it be already served when the guests sit down?" asked Mrs. Newbywed.

"No," the soup should be served after the guests are seated," her mother-in-law answered sweetly.

"Is it necessary to say good-night to one's hostess after attending a formal dinner?" inquired Maud.

"It is quite necessary. It is also advisable to make some remark assuring her that you enjoyed the dinner," replied her aunt.

Norway's Capital.

The name of Christiania dates back only 300 years. The city which preceded it was Oslo, the site of which is now included in the area of Christiania. Oslo was the ancient capital of Norway and existed some 600 years before its name was changed to Christiania, in 1324, after King Christian IV, resolved, in spite of the protests of the citizens, that the site of the capital should be moved a couple of thousand yards westward to be nearer the fortress of Akershus and at the same time decided that the town when rebuilt should be named after himself.

Even the fellow who builds castles in the air doesn't necessarily have to be a high flyer.

"THE MORNING AFTER"

(By Dr. L. W. Bower.)

One of the characteristic headaches due to uric acid in the system, which acts as a poison when it accumulates, is due to alcohol taken the night before. The kidneys do not succeed in throwing off this poisonous accumulation, the stomach is nauseated, or the blood congested in the head, causing throbbing pain, called headache—the heart is depressed, circulation of blood poor to the extremities, the muscles feel tired, or twinges of pain here and there are felt, and when this uric acid is deposited in the tissues or joints it causes rheumatism or gout. I always advise the drinking of hot water, a half pint in the morning, and a little Anuric. Sometimes the "blue" or a sort of rash, or a pimply face, gives way to a "uric acid storm." At such times always take Anuric (double strength), which can be obtained at almost any drug store, and which you will find dissolves the uric acid almost as hot water does sugar.

Avoid too much meat, tea and alcohol. Drink an abundance of water, both hot and cold. Take Anuric three times a day until the bad symptoms all subside. This is the best way to avoid rheumatism and many of the pains and aches due to a uric acid condition. If you drink any alcoholic beverage you should keep the kidneys and liver active with Anuric, so as to throw off the poisons which accumulate. If your tongue is coated—a dark brown taste, breath foul, followed sometimes by colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour acid stomach, you should take some vegetable sugar-coated form from the May-apple, leaves of aloes, and root of jalap, and commonly sold as almost all purgatives as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are standard and have been in ready-to-use form for nearly fifty years.—Advertisement.

The Sick

Your Boys and Girls

She cannot realize that forty-three years ago the whole system of things has changed. She is the mother of people who retard progression. She is the kind of woman who cannot understand her daughters desire to tango instead of polka, and she is the kind who nags, and fusses, and tries to turn the hands of time backward.

Don't be this kind for the sake of your children and progression. Accept things as they are and try to adjust yourself to the trend of the times.

Almost every child loves to own a pet. Children who throw stones at cats and tie cans to cats and dogs tails, are not the children who own a little terrier or tabby cat in their own homes. Ownership of any pet causes a child to become generous and kind to the whole species.

If your little boy wishes to own a Guinea pig or a sky terrier, or even a rabbit out in the yard, what possible harm is it going to do and why should you object. Children in every country have shown a strong desire to own something that is alive and boys, even more than girls, are fascinated by the ownership of a little pet.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

How to Avoid Grippe.
* Don't put your mouth close to a telephone transmitter.
* Avoid overeating, stuffy rooms
* and undue exposure to inclement weather.
* Have a drinking glass, knife, fork, spoon, towels, pillowcase and handkerchief for your very own. Keep these articles by themselves.
* Stay away from congested places where there is apt to be poor ventilation and where there are always people with colds.
* Keep the feet dry, take plenty of exercise, observe regularity in bedtime hours and do not dress too warmly indoors. It is also well to have the nose and throat examined.

FRECKLES AND BLOTCHES ARE EASILY PEELLED OFF

If you are bothered with any cutaneous blemish, it's a poor plan to use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. The only way to remove the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercurized wax. Applied nightly, the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, red blotches or any surface eruption. The affected cuticle is absorbed a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for one ounce of mercurized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple, harmless treatment report astonishing results.

If troubled with wrinkles or furrows, a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of weak hazel will prove wonderfully effective. There is nothing better for dry skin than a similar and improving the facial contour. It acts instantly and will not irritate even the most sensitive skin. Adv.

Night Light in the Sky.
In studying the amount of light in the sky on a starlit night Lambert in Yutema, in Germany, reached the interesting conclusion that the luminosity of the sky is partly by direct starlight and caused by some other source of light. This latter he calls earth light and suggests that it may be due to a permanent aurora surrounding the earth. The light is variable not only on different nights, but at different hours of the same night. He found it to be from seven to fifteen times the amount of mean starlight, but it is believed that this ratio is exceptional and does not prevail everywhere. Some observations indicate that the light has its origin close to the surface of the earth. It has been suggested that it may have a similar origin to that of the light emitted by the coma of a comet.

Many a man might make a good cavalryman who never attended a horse show in his life.

Tiny and Tireless.
Heat is not a substance. It is merely the vibration of the molecules compressing the material heated. Every material is made up of molecules, and each molecule is composed of atoms. Molecules of matter are held together by a force called "cohesion."

At absolute zero, colder yet than liquid air, or minus 270 degrees, all molecules are at rest. As the temperature rises the molecules begin to move to and fro. The higher the temperature is raised the further and faster swing the molecules.

Molecules are so minute that there are about one sextillion of them in a cubic inch of air. These at freezing temperature oscillate back and forth at the rate of 1,470 feet a second. The average length of their path between oscillations is about one two hundred and seventy-seven thousandth of an inch. Each comes into collision with its fellows about 5,000,000 times a second.

Foe of the Tarantula.

Tarantulas prefer loose, stony ground for their habitat. The foolish creatures come out for a stroll just before the sunset hours, at the very time when the tarantula hawk—which is not a bird, but a wasp—is out looking for them. The vicious wasp is quite sure to find them, and, although the fight may be long and the tarantula may make a tenacious defense, the wasp's lance will finally pierce and stupefy the tarantula, whose body will retain warmth during the required number of days for the incubation of the eggs which the wasp will deposit in her victim.

When the grubs of the baby tarantula hawks appear the ungracious little things will immediately proceed to devour the warm husk that gives them protection and life, thus fulfilling their destiny and incidentally protecting the dwellers on the border.

time. Besides this feature there is the added feature of health. You air. Again you save in house rent, because you do not have to live so close to your work, and in case you own your own home you do not have to pay such high taxes as you would if you were compelled to live near the center of the town. Roy J.

LYRIC.
The Lyric theatre announces the arrival of Carmeo Gressaff a young Russian and Miss Crete, an accompanist, who will appear at the Lyric for the first half of this week commencing today. This pair of high class musicians are the freshest and successful of the Keith circuit and this local theatre is fortunate in securing them for its Newark patrons. Mrs. Gressaff's superb voice and striking stage appearance appeals to his audience, while Miss Virden's sympathetic accompaniment lend an artistic touch to the artist's group of songs. Zarelli and Elva, a pair of comedy entertainers in a new and up-to-date comedy acrobatic act. Harry Smith, the king of baseball comedy singing and dancing. There will be a change of photo play daily.

AUDITORIUM.
"The Moral Sin."
Viola Dana, who appears in the Metro-Columbia feature production,
"The Moral Sin," is one of the most idealized stars of the motion picture world.

Miss Dana first appeared as a solo dancer at the age of five. She studied with the celebrated danseuse, Mme.
Bonfanti, and did full credit to her training. From dancing to a struggling natural step and the girl appeared in Isen's "When We Dead Awake," as Little Hendrick in "Tip Van Winkle," with Thomas Jefferson, and in other important productions.

Little Miss Dana scored a great triumph in the Broadway success, "The Poor Little Rich Girl," by Eleanor Gates, and in this production her charm and simplicity of manner became known to thousands of people.
More powerful than any of these is Miss Dana's part in the present production, "The Moral Sin." The role of Jane Anderson, wife of a struggling author, affords a wonderful opportunity for the star's emotional abilities.
This feature is seen at the Auditorium today together with the seven-episode of Patria with Mrs. Vernon Castle. Mrs. Castle will be seen tomorrow also in connection with "The Pride of the Clan."

Mary Pickford at the Auditorium tomorrow. Library Benefit afternoon and evening.

"In Again, Out Again."
By strange coincidence, Ada Gilman, who appeared in Douglas Fairbanks'
first starring vehicle on the speaking stage, also plays a supporting character in his first photoplay produced by his own company for Artcraft Pictures.

During the production of "In Again,
Out Again," the initial Fairbanks-Artcraft to be seen at the Auditorium tomorrow Wednesday and Thursday, Miss Gilman and "Doug" spent many pleasant minutes reminiscing between scenes and many interesting stories were recalled one of which involved the last dress rehearsal for "Doug" in connection with his first big part.

The fact that it was "Doug's" first play as a star resulted in extreme nervousness on the part of the ambitious actor who confessed his condition to the well known character actress.
After the initial performance was over Miss Gilman was surprised to find her dressing room filled with choice plants and flowers and a note reading: "The thought that if I failed in my performance would prove a great disappointment to you, compelled me to work even harder than I had before. I hope such an extent, that the stage director, after the first act, advised me to eliminate my over-emotional acting."

Taken Cummings for Job Hunter.
Irving Cummings, who plays opposite Virginia Pearson in William Fox's
After the Rain, was seen yesterday at Fox casting office one afternoon when the picture was being made when he noticed a man scanning him from head to foot. The fellow sauntered up to Mr. Cummings and said:

"Say, boy, if you're looking for work down the road, I can give you a job as a man in there and they're looking for a man of your type. There's a five day in it."

Mr. Cummings is well known in Newark his late wife being from this city.
"A Royal Romance" will be seen at the Auditorium next Friday.

The Coburn Players.
Following a decade of long and successful engagements in the larger cities and with the leading universities and colleges, The Coburn Players continue their triumph and will be seen at the Auditorium, next Saturday, in
"The Yellow Jacket."

Every possibility in Shakespeare's remarkable theme has been utilized and a dramatic production of the highest integrity and artistic value is assured. Revisions should be made at the Auditorium Thursday.

Great Play Coming.
Manager Penberg of the Auditorium has arranged for an early presentation at his house of J. Stuart Blackton's new production, "The Glory of the Nation" by Mr. Black-ton and Cyrus Townsend Brady in

DAWES AMBULANCE UNIT READY SOON FOR FRENCH FIELDS

New York, May 21.—The pretty and enterprising little city of Marietta, Ohio, has been placed firmly on the map of patriotism by one of its foremost citizens, B. G. Dawes, and while many here already are talking about Marietta it is probable that that name and the name of Dawes next week will be known throughout a much wider area, even extending to the battlefields of France.

Elaborate arrangements have been completed for the reception and review here in the coming week of the complete field ambulance unit which Dawes and his friends have given to the American Ambulance Field Service in France.

Dawes has arrived in advance of the unit, which consists of 20 motor ambulances, with repair car and necessary equipment, and he and Mrs. Dawes are at the Waldorf, where already he has received the praise and commendation of many prominent men and societies. Gates Dawes, son of B. G. Dawes, will command the unit.

The students of Marietta College, who are going to France as drivers of the Marietta Ambulance Corps, as it is to be known, and Gates Dawes and other employees of the unit, with Dawes himself, will be the guests of the Ohio Society of New York.

WOMAN AND FIVE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN HOME

Middleport, O., May 21.—Six persons, Mrs. John Betzing and her five children, burned to death in their home at Minesville, near here, late Saturday night. Mr. Betzing was away from home on a fishing trip.

Before the family was awakened the fire had made such headway that escape was impossible. Neighbors made efforts to rescue the family from their burning home but were driven back by the flames.

am glad he did not cut me off too soon.

"When I remember that I had been shot accidentally two times, and when I have been up against various problems and propositions, I wonder why it was that He spared me until I settled this. In all these years of travel, on both sides of the Atlantic and all over this continent I was only in one minor accident and He spared me until I was saved. He has tried to save and reach you. He teaches the ignorant and reproves the man who knows.

"It is astounding how many different means have been employed in the salvation of men. Every Christian life and Christian influence is enough to fulfill everything in this Book. Everybody about you may be a hypocrite, but after one Christian lives a good life before you that is enough. Every sermon—not a lecture—but every true sermon contains enough elements that when you come to the Judgment Bar, will condemn you if you don't act upon it. It'll damn you.

"A preacher after preaching, went into a store. A man there was cursing, and when he saw the Bible under the preacher's arm, he took off his hat and said 'I beg your pardon, sir.' Why don't our church people who play cards, have a Bible on the table? Why don't they play for a Bible instead of vases? They know the blasphemy of that. It don't work."

"I pictured to you the tremendous effect of listening to a gospel message and then rejecting it. God calls you forward and you don't go. There are two things and you yield to one and reject the other and every time you do it you are laying up against the day of wrath. The books will be opened there. It is like I have spoken into the recording phonograph and then it has been taken down and was put back on, and everything was spoken out just as I gave it. Someone is taking a record of your life and motives, policies and secret hypocrisies, taking a record of theft in your mind or adultery in your heart. All is going down. Some day the books will be opened and your record from within your own heart will damn you by and by."

A large audience was assembled in the tabernacle Sunday afternoon to hear Dr. Bromley preach a farewell sermon called the "Sermon of Congress." The chorus rendered special numbers. In this address the evangelist urged the representatives of the nation to stand up for the things which were right and to allow no false delusions to lead them away from the paths of duty. The need for people to stand by each other was strongly emphasized.

The different churches co-operating in the movement will resume their individual church activities and the next few weeks will be taken up by the churches in taking in the new members.

The campaign was the fifth and last for the season held by the evangelist and marked the close of the evangelistic year. This afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Bromley left for their home at Wilmore, Ky. Director Wieand left for Reading, Pa., and Mr. Shannon for Berwick, Pa. Miss Fetterolf goes to her home near Wilkesbarre, Pa. Miss Ditzell and mother went on a tour through Canada before going to their home in Kansas. Mr. Harris is a Steubenville boy and left for his home also. Mr. Hoffman, Dr. Bromley's secretary, resides in Cincinnati and he too, returned home today.

The following eloquent signed statement was made some time ago to T. J. Evans, the Nerv-Worth representative at Newark, where this famous family tonic has been sold steadily in large quantities to the ailing folks of the community:

"For several years I suffered with nervousness, tried several doctors who could not help me. Then I tried a bottle of Nerv-Worth and after having finished the first bottle I felt very much relieved.

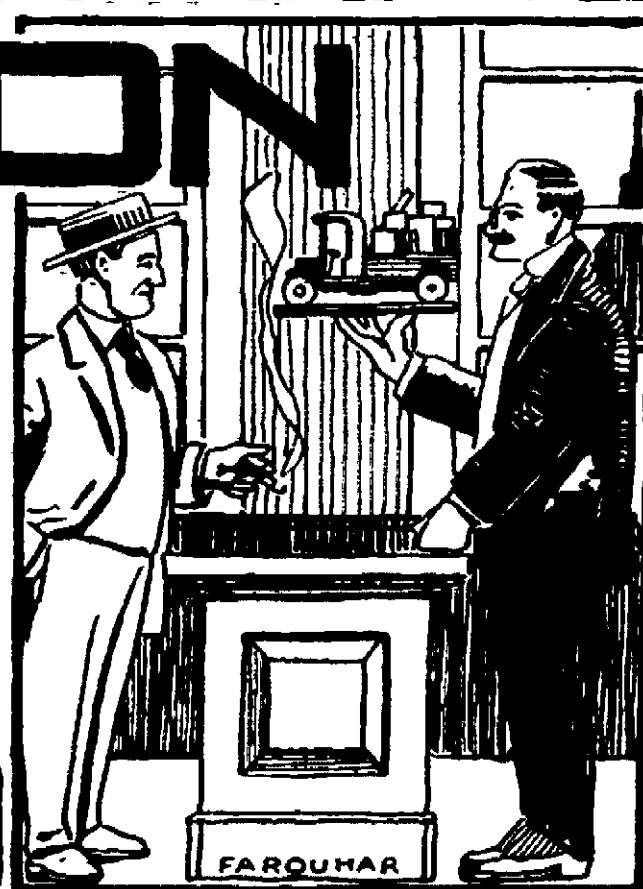

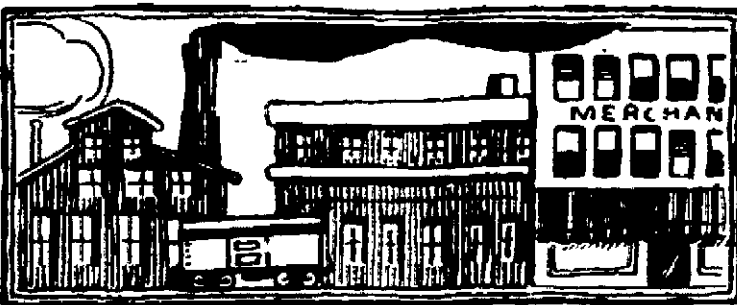

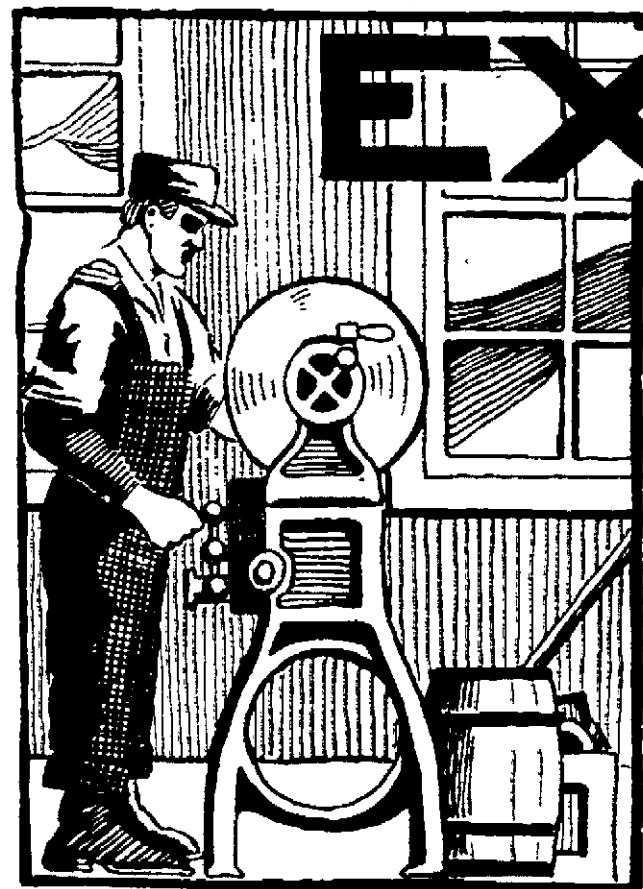

"I have taken about seven or eight bottles and would not be without one. I consider this remedy to be one which can be recommended to every sufferer from nervousness. (Mrs.) 'EMILY LUCKNER.
